Dear Bill:

I am concerned about raising the scholarship fund to $600 from $500. At the end of December, 1974, our bank account was $1,219.70. One year later, it is only $783.49 with two mailings to be done soon. While there is no doubt that $500 is inadequate, I would like to defer the decision to raise the amount until we have a better view of our financial condition in April.

Sincerely,

J. Lamar Woodard
Secretary-Treasurer
